DECLINES GOVERNOR'S TROOP REQUEST

JOHNSON'S APPEAL IS DENIED

Gen. Murray Says More Pressing Need Must Be Shown

California-Mexican Border Still in Excitement

SAN FRANCISCO, March 19.—"Unless Governor Johnson can show me a more pressing need for troops on the California-Mexican border than is now apparent, I shall not send soldiers from here," said Major-General Arthur Murray today, referring to the governor's request to the war department that additional troops be sent to protect life and property in a half-dozen small towns on the international line, the residents of which are still excited over the recent killing of the postmaster at Tecate and the burning of the postoffice.

The residents of the section appealed to Governor Johnson, who in turn referred the communication to the war department. Secretary of War Garrison turned the papers over to General Murray, with instructions to "look after the matter."

MURRAY EXPRESSES VIEWS.
General Murray said that the general Mexican situation had nothing to do with the murder of the Tecate postmaster and that conditions are "not just about as they have been for two years."

"The main trouble is that the border towns are shy of peace and civil officers and now they are asking for United States troops to protect them, which, in my opinion, is not necessary," is the way General Murray sums up the situation.

Governor Johnson and the general held a conference today to decide on the proper course to pursue.

LOS ANGELES, March 19.—While no official word came to the White House today of the reported purpose of General Huerta to reopen parleys with the United States by sending his minister of foreign affairs, Jose Rojas, to Vera Cruz to confer with John Lind, administration officials indicated that the situation is still in a state of uncertainty.

WOMAN'S HABITS, AS DOCTOR VIEWS THEM

Physician on Stand in Drown Case Supports Prosecution

"A woman who buys goods as a store and returns the package unopened is not insane, because she is merely exercising a woman's prerogative of changing her mind."

"A woman who remains up until 3 o'clock in the morning cannot be said to be insane, because this is done in the best society."

"A woman who carries her jewels in a chamois bag in her hat is not insane, because many women put them in their stockings."

These are a few of the reasons given by Dr. J. W. Robertson, a District Attorney Hines, in answering questions put to him, he referred to the 20,000-word hypothetical question asked by medical men by the defense several days ago.

The original answer to the lengthy question has been that the person referred to was insane. In his analysis of the same question, Dr. Robertson brought out a few points which were in contention with the theory of insanity set forth by the defense. The witness said that Mrs. Drown was unquestionably a victim of hysteria, but that persons so suffering are not in control of their mental faculties.

closely related," declared the doctor. He also went on to say that evidence showing that Mrs. Drown had frequently carried on a one-sided conversation with her dead mother would indicate insanity on her part; that there was no doubt but what she had been a long-suffering wife and subjected to much mental torture.

JOSEPH E. BAKER, NOTED EDITORIAL WRITER, DIES

Oakland Loses Journalist Known Throughout Nation

Pen of 'Tribune' Staff's Brilliant Member Laid Aside

JOSEPH EUGENE BAKER, editorial writer of THE TRIBUNE, died at his residence, 2327 Webster street, at noon today, as the result of a stroke of apoplexy, which he experienced on Sunday, March 1. He had been ailing and off duty for a week previously, but neither he nor his family, associates or friends then felt any anxiety about his condition or doubt as to his speedy recovery. The fatal stroke occurred, however, without any forewarning, and, although it left him in a comatose condition until last Sunday, his physicians held out strong hopes then of his ultimate recovery. On Sunday consciousness was temporarily restored, but it was quickly followed by a relapse and all hope for his restoration to health was abandoned. Through the rest of the week he was sustained wholly by his great vitality and strong constitution. He breathed his last peacefully, surrounded by the members of his family.

His sudden demise will be mourned by a host of friends and acquaintances throughout this state and in Nevada, Oregon, Texas and other parts of the country where he had formed many warm friendships.

Arrangements for the funeral will be announced later.

IN CONFEDERATE ARMY.

Joseph Eugene Baker was born sixty-seven years ago near Conyers, a Georgia town, lying not far from the Alabama state line, twenty miles from Atlanta. Of his boyhood life but little is known beyond the fact that the family had moved to Texas before the beginning of the civil war. From that state, when sixteen or seventeen years old, he joined the Confederate army of Tennessee, commanded by General Joseph E. Johnson, in which his uncle, Brigadier General Alpheus Baker, commanded a division. Johnson had been directed by President Jefferson Davis to oppose General Sherman's entry into the heart of the South from Chattanooga. Mr. Baker served throughout the campaign, which brought disaster to the Confederacy.

After the war, Baker migrated to Texas, where he secured employment in the quartz mill of the Meadow Lake Mining Company, situated about ten miles from Pioche. The mine was then under the superintendency of Gardner F. Williams, one of the first graduating class of the University of California, who became later general manager of the famous De Beers consolidated diamond mines at Kimberley, South Africa.

California has produced during the past forty years.

When the Meadow Valley Mining Company went to pieces and operations were abandoned, Baker came to California and resided in the city of San Francisco for some time.

ASSOCIATES DISTINGUISHED.

At the Meadow Lake Mining Company's quartz mill Mr. Baker had as fellow workers a group of associates which constituted one of the most distinguished coterie in the state of Nevada, including Judge Beatty, George Story Curtis, son of George Picknor Curtis and grandson of Justice Story of the United States Supreme Court, and a cousin of W. W. Story, the distinguished poet and sculptor, and Henry T. Creswell, one of the best-known members of the San Francisco bar. The association of Mr. Baker with these distinguished men greatly influenced his future life and turned his thoughts into the literary channel, in which he attained more than statewide fame as one of the best and most accomplished writers of the West.

PAYS $3500 FOR PIMENTAL DEATH

Suit Against Wealthy Owner of Auto Settled by Widow

A financial settlement was reached this afternoon in the $30,000 damage suit brought by Mrs. Clara Pimental against A. J. Stevinson, a wealthy cattle owner of Newman, who caused the death of her husband, Antonio Pimental, in an automobile and motorcycle collision at First avenue and East Twelfth street on October 20, 1912. The case was on trial before Superior Judge Murphy in the Extra Sessions, having commenced last Monday. It was rumored that $2500 and costs to plaintiff was the terms of settlement agreed upon by parties to the action.

Following the death of Pimental, who was hurled from his motorcycle through the glass windshield of the Stevinson automobile, Stevinson was charged with murder and with driving an automobile while intoxicated. The charge was later reduced to manslaughter and he was held to answer in the Superior Court. The case dragged on for many months until it was brought to trial before Superior Judge Wells last August. On August 27 the case was dismissed on motion of the district attorney, when attorneys for the defense cited an old decision of the Supreme Court which prevented the admission of testimony as to the alleged intoxication of Stevinson at the time of the accident when he was driving his automobile. Habeas corpus proceedings taken before Superior Judge Waste prior to the trial failed to release the defendant from the charge.

Besides the widow who won her suit today, there are four children in the family.

Big Four Passenger Train Raily Wrecked

MARION, Ind., March 18.—Four passenger train No. 39, south bound, was wrecked today at Deer Creek Hill, south of here. Though railroad officials report no one injured, ambulances and physicians have been summoned from here.

SOUNDS NOTE OF WARNING TO 'DRESSERS'

DENVER, March 19.—"Woman's suffrage and the modern woman's movement were responsible for modern dress, would not be in favor of either. Luckily, however, such is not the case."

Sounding this strong note of disapproval with the tastes of many of her sisters, Mrs. Richard Bland, widow of Richard (Silver Dick) Bland, Democratic Congressman from Missouri for a quarter of a century, has come to Denver as assistant internal revenue collector here.

Coming from a state where women are not even allowed to vote or serve on the school board, she is determined to enter the public and political life of Denver, it is said.

"I think women will eventually have the vote in every state," she said today. "Only time can tell how beneficial that change will be. I believe, however, the laws of Colorado have been better since the women here got the ballot." Mrs. Bland admits that she "may have some old-fashioned ideas," but declares she thinks home and children are the best for any woman. She herself is the mother of ten children.

"Eugenics? I know scarcely enough about that to discuss it," she said. "But if it will help cure the divorce evil, it is all right. I most emphatically disapprove of divorce. In extreme cases, but there must be never, under any circumstances, be remarriage."

JONES WON'T ABANDON FIGHT

Senator Adheres to His Demand for Tolls Policy Explanation

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Discussion of the Panama tolls controversy was renewed in the Senate today when Senator Jones of Washington again urged the passage of his resolution asking President Wilson to submit to the Senate the names of all foreign governments which have protested against the tolls exemption provision of the canal act together with copies of communications which have passed between them and the United States on the subject.

Senator Jones contended that it was imperative that the Senate, before it took up the President's withdrawal of the tolls, should be informed as to the interests of the foreign nations in the matter. He pointed out that the resolution only requested information which the President deemed advisable to give.

WONT SEEK DELAY.

Interest in the controversy was added today by the return to the city of Senator O'Gorman. Although strongly opposed to the proposed repeal and prepared to fight it on the floor, it is believed that O'Gorman will not seek to delay consideration of the canal bill by the inter-oceanic canal committee, of which he is chairman. Senator Owen and others had planned to confer with the New York Senator to urge a meeting of the committee immediately so that a report may be made before the Senate by the time the House acts upon the Sims bill, with which the Owen measure is virtually identical. The Sims bill is expected to be called up in the House Saturday.

HOTEL OAKLAND PROVES PROFITABLE INVESTMENT

The Hotel Oakland is now on a paying basis. According to the announcement made by the hotel's manager, Victor Reiter, the hotel registered a total on the profit side of the ledger last month, and will do the same this month.

"The profit so far has not been large," declared Reiter, "but the belief of the expectation is near, and I believe that we will be able to announce increasing profits from now on. This month's profits will be larger than last. When it is considered that first year of its existence—always a year of loss to any hotel—than last year, it is a very gratifying result."

United States, these early profits are very gratifying. It means that the hotel is now on a paying basis, and ahead of the time when a profit was expected."

THUG KILLS FARMER

Fred Altschwager Mortally Wounded, Son Held Up

Former Is Left to Bleed to Death, Police Active

After shooting Fred Altschwager, of Elmhurst, keeper of a duck ranch at Stanley road and Grant avenue, last night, a robber tied the old man fast to a wagon and left him there to bleed to death.

The robber had come to the place and had held up Altschwager and his nephew, Hans, and on the failure of the aged man to raise his hands above his head immediately, shot him through the abdomen.

The shooting occurred at 8:30. The robber secured tied both men to diagonally opposite wheels of a wagon and left them, the nephew being helpless to save his uncle.

For over an hour Hans Altschwager struggled and strained and fought to free himself from the cord with which he had been bound to the wheel of the wagon. He finally succeeded in tearing himself loose, using his teeth and fingernails until his hands were bleeding. He then untied his uncle, and, after giving him what aid he could, ran for a doctor.

DIES AT SANITARIUM.

Altschwager was treated by Dr. Phil H. Weber, 9715 East Fourteenth street, and removed to the Alameda Sanatorium, where he died shortly before 8 o'clock this morning after making a dying statement to the police concerning the affair.

The Melrose police station was notified immediately by Dr. Weber, and Captain Brown, with Lieutenant Schroeder, Corporal Conroy, Chauffeur Crossman and Patrolman Noble, rushed to the scene. An investigation was made and the neighborhood was searched, but the murderer had had ample time to make his escape. Captain of Inspectors Lou F. Agnew detailed Detectives Richard McSorley and Thomas Wood to continue the investigation today.

According to the story told by Hans Altschwager and corroborated in the fragmentary statement uttered by his uncle, the murderer came to the duck ranch armed and masked, apparently intent on robbery.

Fred Altschwager was alone when the robber approached him. "Tie up your hands," he ordered. Altschwager failed to obey speedily, and the robber raised his revolver and shot him, the bullet penetrating the abdomen. Altschwager fell against the wagon and the man hastily obtained a rope and tied him securely to the wheel.

It was not until his uncle had already been tied hand and foot to the wheel and gagged that the younger man approached, led to the scene by having heard the sound of the shot fired. The murderer immediately covered him with his weapon, backed him up against an off wheel of the wagon and used the remainder of the rope to tie him securely. The man then made his escape.

Fire Burning Toward Great Redwood Forest

SAN JOSE, March 13.—Fire this afternoon menaces the big tree grove in the California Redwood park, known as the Big Basin. Seventy men are engaged in fighting back the flames and every effort is being made to save the monster redwoods. Volunteers have been called for and 50 students are on their way from Stanford University to assist in fighting the fire.

Flames are creeping down Ganos creek gulch in the vicinity of Hollow Tree Camp, along the north fork of Varcoe creek.

A large number of woodsmen employed by the Middleton Lumber Company and the Southern Lumber Company have been impressed to fight the fire. Fire Warden Walter H. Dool of the State park are in command of the fire-fighters.

Shriners to 'Take Atlanta'
The City Must Capitulate

GEORGE S. MEREDITH, ILLUSTRIOUS POTENTATE OF AAHMES TEMPLE, MYSTIC SHRINE, WHO WILL RECEIVE COMMITTEE.

Final plans for what is declared the greatest boosting trip ever taken by Californians will be laid Sunday morning in Oakland when representatives from the four temples of the Mystic Shrine in this state will gather at the headquarters of Aahmes Temple, in the Hotel Oakland, to perfect the arrangements for the "On to Atlanta" tour. The session will be that of the general committee of arrangements of the trip, this body being composed of Director General F. B. Silverwood, who so successfully directed the recent "Hands Around the State" trip, potentates of the different temples and several others.

The gathering in Oakland will consist of Leo V. Youngworth, Illustrious potentate of Al Malikah Temple, Los Angeles; Carl Helbron, Illustrious potentate of Al Bahr Temple, San Diego; George Flumer, Illustrious potentate of Islam Temple, San Francisco; and George D. Meredith, Illustrious potentate of Aahmes Temple, Oakland, together with Motley H. Flint, Los Angeles; Clarence Haddock, manager of transportation, and Director General Silverwood. Silverwood will be chairman of the meeting.

The visiting Shriners will be received at the Hotel Oakland by Illustrious Potentate Meredith of Aahmes Temple, who will welcome them to Oakland and the Oakland temple. Following the meeting, which will occupy the principal part of the morning, they will be entertained at luncheon and taken for an automobile tour about the city.

The trip to Atlanta will be taken by the California Shriners to bring to San Francisco in 1915 the great national gathering of the Shriners. Four trains will carry the California boosters, for they are going not as Shriners, but as boosters for the Golden State, and elaborate plans are under way for the trip. The Shriners will visit every city en route, carrying the message of the exposition and boosting for California.

The four special trains, of which the Oakland train will leave on April 30 over the Western Pacific tracks, will come together at Kansas City. There they will be received by the local Shriners and will be entertained at banquets and other affairs. The massed bands and patrols of the four temples will give a great concert in the evening. The Oakland boosters will also visit Salt Lake City en route.

STOP AT ST. LOUIS. From Kansas City the four trains will proceed together. Stops will be made at St. Louis, where a big celebration will be held in their honor at Chicago and many other cities until New York is reached. Then the Shriners will visit Washington, D. C., and will finally arrive at Atlanta, the scene of the big convention, on May 10.

The great trip of the boosters will cost nearly $50,000, all of which the Shriners themselves are spending, that the great est of their conclaves may be brought here to aid in making the exposition a success. The Hands Around the State concert tour raised a portion of this fund. Sunday's meeting will see the final settlement of all details and the work from then on will proceed with a rush.

ated a willingness to listen to any new proposals for a peaceful settlement. They seemed to attach most importance at this time to the outcome of the impending battle at Torreon, which is expected to mark a critical turn in the strength and prestige of the contending factions. When the exchange of notes between Senator Gamboa and Charge O'Shaughnessy and John Lind was concluded last autumn, the attitude of the Washington government was firmly established as opposed not only to the recognition of Huerta, but any successor of his choosing. The Washington government has been mindful that a peaceful settlement in Mexico depended not alone on the choosing of a man to whom diplomatic recognition might be extended, but that it was equally dependent on the attitude of the Constitutionalists, who have announced their unwillingness to compromise with the Huertista group. Should the Constitutionalists be defeated at Torreon, it is within the range of possibilities that the whole situation may be changed and a compromise candidate agreed on. Speculation in official circles was not based on any definite information, and news of the visit of Rojas to Mr. Lind was eagerly awaited.

WILSON SPEAKS TO JONES. President Wilson told Senator Jones, Republican, of Washington, today that he was skating on thin ice, in his speech yesterday, which broadly intimated that the President had not decided to read a message to Congress on the Panama tolls question until after Sir Lionel Carden, British minister to Mexico, visited the White House. The President told callers afterward that he could not get a suggestion on the Mexican question range at Torreon. The President had foregone his tolls message and decided to deliver it before he saw Sir Lionel. Officials say neither the tolls question nor any suggestions for future policy in the Mexican question came up in the talk with Sir Lionel.

SNOW STORMS REPORTED. MEMPHIS, March 19.—Snow and from the northwest was reported to day from various sections of Oklahoma, Texas and West Texas and Arkansas. The snow fall was one of the latest on record in Central Texas. With predictions of colder weather for tonight great fear was felt in Texas for fruit trees and gardens, which are well advanced.

graph had been imposed in order to prevent the Torreon garrison being informed of the recent developments by way of Eagle Pass or Mexico City.

EXPECT AN ATTACK. JUAREZ, Mexico, March 19.—A simultaneous attack on Torreon and Mazatlan was predicted today in advance of the capture of the city. While General Villa's rebel army was moving against Torreon forces under General Alvaro Obregon would assault Mazatlan. Obregon was reported to be moving 12,000 troops against the Pacific coast port. This was said to be part of a general plan by reason of the aggressive movement against all federal forces in Northern Mexico. The fall of Mazatlan, it was conceded, would mean virtual control of the west coast district, while Torreon is the railroad center of Central Mexico, the capture of Torreon would threaten the capital. After the capture of these two points both armies would move against Guadalajara, which is the strategic key to the interior. According to the plans Guaymas will be ignored in the hope that the California gulf port will fall with the capture of Mazatlan. In the projected campaign on the west coast the "unbeatable Tampico," recently surrendered to the insurgents, will be employed to counteract the two federal gunboats remaining on the coast. Mazatlan is considered easier to take by reason of its location than Guaymas, which has been attacked repeatedly without result. It was said that the simultaneous movements against Torreon and Mazatlan had received the sanction of General Carranza, now marching overland into Chihuahua, but who, it was said, had been in frequent touch by wire with insurgent military commanders.

OBREGON WELL EQUIPPED. DOUGLAS, Ariz., March 19.—General Alvaro Obregon's objective is Mazatlan, the support of Simaca, but constitutionalist forces had no report that the federal garrison had been attacked. The last heard from Obregon was three days ago, when he was at Navajo and moving rapidly southward. Obregon took 2000 men with him from Sanora, with a large quantity of ammunition for cannon and small arms. With the forces of General Huertado would have more than 12,000 men available for the assault on Mazatlan. The rebel contemplates the fall of Mazatlan and then a march southward through Tepic and Jalisco to Mexico City.

Only a Millionaire Can Afford to Neglect His Teeth

A millionaire can go around looking like a tramp and not lose anything by it, but the man who has to work for his living must keep up a good appearance in order to hold his job or to secure another one.

Few people realize the importance of sound healthy teeth. A mouthful of bad teeth will spoil the looks of anyone. You simply can't afford to neglect your teeth if you want to get ahead in the business or social world.

Don't let the dread of pain keep you from having your teeth fixed. There won't be any pain if you'll come to me. My wonderful Tetrasthesia does away with the torture in dental operations of every description.

The moment Tetrasthesia is applied to a sensitive tooth the nerve feeling leaves and does not return until the work is completed. I can operate, fill, treat or extract any tooth, no matter how painful it is, without hurting you the least bit.

I also make a specialty of replacing missing teeth by the Rex Alveolar System without the use of partial plates or dentures.

Let me show you a set of teeth and see how permanently in the jaws. They enable the wearer to eat anything he likes with as much ease and comfort as when he had all of his own teeth. Rex Alveolar teeth are the most perfect artificial teeth known and can be installed in any mouth where there are two or more sound, natural teeth left.

If you are forced to wear a plate you ought to get one that can be used with comfort. My Rex Alveolar plate is the best, strongest and most satisfactory plate made. It fits perfectly, never irritates and is comfortable.

Examinations and estimates free to all. No charge for consultation.

Hours: 8:30 to 5:30. Sundays, 10 to 12.

If you can't call, write today for my Free Book on Teeth.

A HAPPY CHILD IN A FEW HOURS

When Cross, Constipated, Feverish Give "California Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "California Syrup of Figs," because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well-pleased child again. Children seldom will not take the time from play to empty their bowels, and they become tightly packed, liver gets sluggish and stomach disordered.

When cross, feverish, restless, sleepless, or when they give this delicious "fruit laxative," children love it and it cannot cause injury. No difference what ails your little one—if full of cold, or a sore throat, diarrhoea, stomachache, bad breath, remember, a gentle "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look carefully and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." We make no smaller size. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Begin Hearings in Anti-Trust Suit

WASHINGTON, March 18.—Hearings in the government's anti-trust suit against the Quaker Oats Company and the Great Western Cereal Company began today before Miss Kate S. Holmes, special examiner.

"The government charges," said James H. Wilkinson, United States district attorney, that the defendants are in conspiracy to monopolize the oat meal business of the country. It seeks the dissolution of the company and asks that it be enjoined from interstate commerce until the dissolution is complete.

"Prior to 1891," said Wilkinson, "there were 11 principal oatmeal plants in the country—in Ohio, Illinois and Iowa. They were members of a pool known as the Consolidated Oatmeal Company. After the passage of the trust act they were merged into the American Cereal Company, which in 1902 was taken over by the Quaker Oats Company."

NEW YORK GIRL KEEPS INDOOR TENNIS TITLE

NEW YORK, March 18.—Miss Mary Wagner, of New York, retained her title as national woman indoor tennis champion by defeating today Mrs. C. N. Beard, of Chicago, former Western champion, in the final round of the tournament. The scores were: 6-1, 2-5, 6-2.

Save the Babies.

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save a majority of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to conditions which result in death.

You must see that it bears the signature of J. C. Ayer, M. D., of Lowell, Mass. Castoria causes the blood to circulate properly, opens the pores of the skin and allays fever. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of J. C. Ayer, M. D.

MINISTERS BUILD TABERNACLE COMPLETE UNFINISHED WORK

REVIVALS HOUSED IN SCHEDULE TIME

Leading Berkeley Pastors Show They Are Ready for Duty

BERKELEY, March 18.—In order to finish the tabernacle where Dr. Henry Ostrom opened last evening the series of revival meetings he is to conduct here under the auspices of the downtown churches, the ministers of leading congregations of the city, stripped off their coats yesterday afternoon, rolled their sleeves to the elbow, seized saw and hatchet and hammer, and set to work beside equally busy laymen and practiced carpenters. By 7:30 last evening, when Choir Leader Dickson started his singers, the great edifice had been completed.

Among the ministers who assisted in the work were Rev. Lapsley A. McAfee, of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. Arthur Hicks, the student pastor; Rev. David A. Pitt, of the First Baptist church; Rev. R. S. Eastman, of Knox Presbyterian church; Rev. Elbert R. Dille, of the Trinity Methodist church, and a number of others.

The tabernacle was more than two-thirds full for the opening meeting last evening, and it is expected that the end of the week will present the problem of handling by some means the overflow. The edifice seats 2500 persons. It is built entirely of wood and tarred paper under a special permit granted by the city council. The ministers who assisted at its building performed all sorts of labors, from digging holes for uprights to nailing together the planking for the chorus of 200 voices that is to be provided. Of the 300, there were close to 150 present at the opening meeting last evening.

Dr. Ostrom, who comes here from a successful meeting just closed at Stockton, spoke last evening on "The Religious Revival." Meetings will be held every evening for a month, addressed by him. Sunday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, he will speak to men only at the tabernacle, which is at Ellsworth street and Durant avenue, and at the same hour a meeting for women will be held at the First Presbyterian church nearby, with Rev. Dille as speaker.

Many Corporations Declared Delinquent

SACRAMENTO, March 18.—In a proclamation issued by Governor Johnson, 2094 corporations are declared delinquent in paying their corporation franchise taxes. The delinquent corporations owe the state an aggregate of $22,425.28.

Of the original tax levy of $12,971,541.80, fixed by the state board of equalization last year, $12,919,116.52 has been paid. Penalties collected on taxes amounted to $14,974.81 additional.

JONES INSISTS ON WILSON'S REPLY

Senator From Washington Resists Attack on Administration Canal Policies.

Senator Jones today found himself confronted with the task of solving a legal problem affecting their authority. The committee's investigation into the alleged lobbying activities of Clarence W. de Knight, a Washington attorney, was halted yesterday when De Knight, on the advice of counsel, refused to produce certain books and papers, asserting that the committee has no jurisdiction over matters not now pending before Congress.

SEEK INFORMATION.

The attitude of the lawyer was laid before the committee by Chairman Overman. Testimony showing that De Knight received $1000 from a ship-building company in payment for unsuccessful efforts to defeat legislation against the use of the Panama canal by railroad-owned ships, was reviewed and it was said that additional relations with this company was considered highly important. If the committee should decide it cannot compel production of the desired papers the Senate may be asked to give the necessary authority.

MORE INFORMATION NEEDED.

Senator Jones returned from the Capitol and gave the Senate today the President's unqualified denial.

"The President assures me," said Mr. Jones, "that there was no basis of fact in the articles I referred to in warrant the conclusions with regard to this government and its relations with Great Britain. I think I was misunderstood in that I did not draw the conclusions myself, but took them from newspaper reports. I think it only just to the President that I make this statement, because I don't want to misrepresent anybody."

Senator Jones declared the incident served to illustrate the necessity for more information on the tariff exemption and again urged his resolution calling on the President for information as to what governments had protested against exemptions for American ships.

Action was again deferred when Senator Bristow moved that it go over until he could confer with members of the canal committee.

FEDERATED CLUBS TO HOLD FORESTRY LECTURE

ALAMFED, March 19.—The Federated Mothers' clubs of this city will to-ditron of the Washington school, W. C. Dodge, district forester, will give an address, telling of the duties of his department. The Mothers' clubs are holding the lecture for the purpose of instructing children not to be careless with fires when on their summer vacations in the mountains and valleys.

A musical program will be given in connection with the lecture.

Fuel Co. Officials Resume Arguments

SAN FRANCISCO, March 18.—The arguments for a new trial for the convicted Western Fuel officials were resumed today in the United States District Court.

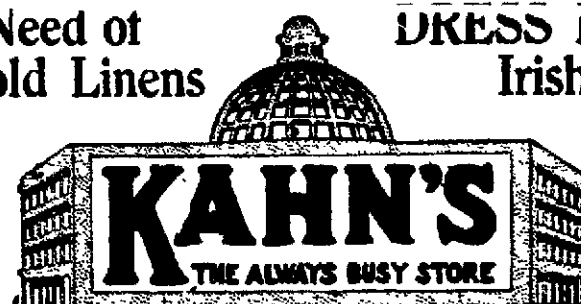

James B. Smith, F. C. Mills and E. H. Mayer, who were found guilty of a conspiracy to defraud the government on coal weights, are seeking another opportunity to present their side of the case to a jury. Their chief hope for the granting of their prayer for a new trial is based on an article published last month in the Knave section of THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE, in which reference was made to convictions of the sugar magnates of New York. This story was circulated freely among the jurors.

Attorney Samuel Knight is presenting the argument on behalf of the defendants.

BELIEVE SLAYER'S TRAIL HAS BEEN DISCOVERED

ATLANTA, Ga., March 18.—Written demand on jail authorities to prevent persons from visiting James Conley, the negro serving a year's sentence for complicity in the murder of 14-year-old Mary Phagan, unless they have the necessary permission, was made today by William M. Smith, Conley's attorney. Conley was indicted of adding Leo M. Frank to the list of the girl's body. Frank is under sentence of death for slaying the girl, investigation being made by a detective of national reputation at the instance of Frank's friends was marked today by this statement. "Every criminal leaves some sort of trail. I am close on the trail of the man who killed Mary Phagan, and I am convinced that it will not be long before I can point him out. The trail is very plain."

Sacramento in Wonder at Skin Cure

Mrs. J. B. Fay Writes of Remarkable Experience With D. D. D.

For three years, I suffered with weeping eczema. The first symptom came in the form of a heat rash on the ankle with intense itching. In a short time pustules appeared. I became frightened and called in a doctor. The disease kept creeping up to the knee and towards the toes. I tried everything and anything with no relief. In time my hands became infected from constant scratching and applying the different lotions and waters—had to give up my bath. Water was poison to my flesh. I was almost insane. For days I was up and down either sitting or standing, had to put my leg on a chair draped in old muslin and fan sometimes for hours. I became desperate and wanted a doctor to cauterize it, but he

AIR WAVES AS WEATHER GAUGE

Father Ricard Tells of Reason for Climatic Changes; Explains Theories.

Describing great billows of air, like the waves of a mighty ocean, which sweep over the earth, and would, could they be seen, form great plains and valleys in a constant state of change, Father Jerome Ricard, Santa Clara's "rain padre," has described how, by these waves, which can measure, he tells the coming of dry or wet seasons, of sunshine or storm. These waves, he declares, are affected by magnetism. Therefore, by tracing the magnetism and also the waves, he has worked out the rule by which, he declares, he foretells storms.

"It is for each weather man," he says, "to report how much the fall or the rise has been and for the central office to draw lines of equal fall or rise. Hence originates the idea of a rate of fall and rise in a given time and over a given space."

suggest the idea of an amphitheatre-like distribution of the air pressure. We may fancy first a central flat bottom to denote an area of equal pressure and then a succession of receding tiers of seats to represent the horizontal lines of lower and higher pressure. There is a general slope from the top line to the bottom line and a particular slope between any two successive lines, for the distance apart from line to line need not be equal throughout.

Five lines or between any two lines chosen at random may, in general terms, be called the barometric gradient. Just as the slope of a roof is measured in terms of the angle made with the horizontal line and just as this angle is in turn measured by its trigonometric tangent (the ratio of the opposite side to the adjacent one), so, the slope of the air pressure between any two isobaric lines is properly measured by the angle of inclination.

In practice, the gradient may be measured by mentally constructing a small right angled triangle, having for base a line of level between any two isobaric lines and for height the difference of pressure between them and dividing the latter by the former. The result will be the trigonometric tangent of the angle of inclination, whence the angle itself can be cleared off.

"According to international agreement the unit gradient is one millimeter of barometric fall for one mean degree of latitude or one degree of longitude at the earth's equator, which is sixty nautical miles or 111 kilometers. This length, of one degree must, of course, be taken along a perpendicular drawn to the isobaric line through the starting point. The English equivalent is 0.01 of an inch to 15 nautical miles."

PROPOSED EXTENSION OF W. P. WATERFRONT

The proposed extension of the Western Pacific waterfront franchise, as applied for by the railroad, will be the subject of a special discussion before the Merchants' Exchange Tuesday night. Charles Snook will speak for the railroad and several others will also be heard. The tunnel and harbor committee will consider the project. This committee consists of A. Jones, chairman; E. A. Young, A. H. Schuster, Theodore Gier and Wilbur Walker.

The proposed extension was applied for by the railroad company to allow them more time to complete the waterfront improvement which they had planned. The work will be outlined in full at the discussion Tuesday night.

SWEDISH PEOPLE TO GIVE CELEBRATION

Thousands of Swedish people from many different parts of California will flock to Shattuck Park next Sunday to attend the annual day and moonlight picnic of the Swedish-American Social and Political club of Alameda county. The event will mark the opening of the 104th annual session of the Swedish people of this vicinity.

A pretentious program has been planned by the committee in charge and neither pains nor expense has been spared to insure an enjoyable celebration. Some of the best athletes on the Pacific Coast will vie with one another in tests of skill and endurance and there will be a long list of games and athletic contests, for which many valuable prizes will be given.

Principal among the features of the festival will be the folk-dances and games typical of celebrating held in old Sweden, which will be participated in by native costumes. Special music will be furnished for those features by the orchestra under the direction of Professor Axel Nilstrom.

Dances in an open-air pavilion at Shattuck will continue during the afternoon and until late tonight. Open-handed hospitality will be the rule throughout the celebration and special cars will be taken of visitors from distant points, many of whom will make the excursion on special trains.

C. P. Peterson is chairman of the committee in charge of the festival.

PACIFIC SEA CO. BUYS COMPETITOR

Alaska Whaling Concern Valued at $1,000,000 Is Acquired.

SEATTLE, March 18.—Announcement was made here last night of the sale of the Pacific Sea Products Company, composed of John Lind, President, Wilson's personal representative in Mexico, and several other Minneapolis capitalists, of the Alaska Whaling Company, organized two years ago by Captain Otto Sverdrup, the Norwegian explorer. The consideration was not made public, but the property which changed hands is valued at $1,000,000. The property acquired by the Pacific Sea Products Company includes the American whaling steamer Unimak and Kodjak, built here two years ago at a cost of $112,000; the Norwegian steamer Admiralen, and a whaling station at Akutan, Alaska, constructed at a cost of $200,000.

The deal was closed yesterday by K. and the general manager of the Pacific Sea Products Company, and a heavy stockholder in the enterprise. W. S. Dinnell, a wealthy lumber owner of Minneapolis, is also heavily interested in the company.

Mr. Dinnell announced that his company would sell the steamer Admiralen, which was used by Captain Sverdrup as a floating whaling station. A new whaling station costing $300,000, will be established in the north. The company will also engage in whaling in addition to the whaling industry and a small codfishery fleet will be sent out from here this year.

General offices of the company will be maintained in Minneapolis with operating offices here. Captain G. Harding, an experienced whaler, will be operating manager.

FREMONT'S SABER IS FOUND BURIED

Believed Property of Pathfinder During Travels in Days of 1845.

Los Angeles, March 18.—An old rusted sword, believed to have been owned by General John Fremont, the pathfinder, on his first expedition to the coast in 1845, was uncovered recently near the campaign grounds of the expedition in Camanche Pass.

Santa Cruz, March 18.—The jury last night awarded Mrs. Cecile Hall $100,000 damages in her suit against her husband's estate. The suit was brought by Mrs. Hall, who is now residing in the Hall of Los Angeles, for alienating his affections and causing the couple to separate. Mrs. Hall Sr., collapsed when the verdict was rendered.

OAKLAND WOMAN FALLS 250 FEET, BADLY HURT

AUBURN, March 19.—While a party from Oakland, who are camping on the American river near here, were climbing the mountains, Miss Jeanne Rocco, one of the members of the party, was lost. As it is nearly 250 feet from the point where Miss Rocco claims to have fallen to the bottom of the ravine where she was found, it is considered almost incredible that she was not killed.

SEEKS REVOCATION OF PANAMA LOTTERY RIGHT

PANAMA, March 19.—The American minister, William J. Price, has forwarded to Ernesto Lefevre, a prominent local foreign agent, a request for the revocation of the concession granted to the Chinese lottery last January. This action was the result of a protest made by American and foreign merchants because of the deleterious effect which the lottery is having on business generally. Minister Lefevre expressed himself in favor of revoking the lottery.

PINK BOLL WORM COTTON SEED PEST

WASHINGTON, March 19.—A shipment of cotton seed from Egypt, found to have been heavily infested by the so-called "pink boll worm," a dangerous pest for use throughout the cotton belt, was immediately placed in quarantine. The seeds were intended for planting in Arizona. According to the report, the pink boll worm is the most serious cotton pest in Egypt and does as much damage in that country as the boll weevil does in the United States.

TO DISCUSS CHANGES IN ROUTING CARS

U. S. Sitter, personal representative of San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railroad, will discuss before the transportation committee of the Board of Commerce to discuss possible changes in the routing of cars on the Berkeley system. Several plans for bettering Berkeley service have been suggested by the committee to the company and these will be considered in detail.

MRS. A. M. BEEBE SPEAKS FOR "HEIGHTS" PURCHASE

Mrs. A. M. Beebe, prominent clubwoman of this city, spoke to the Oakland Federation of Mothers' Clubs yesterday afternoon on the subject of interesting the mayor and citizens of Oakland in the project of buying "The Heights." She pointed out the many advantages of the project and urged the purchase of the land for the city of Oakland and be made into a memorial park to the California poets' memory. She argued that at the 1915 exposition it would be a great drawing card for Oakland as the Greek theater was to Berkeley, and Golden Gate park was to San Francisco.

PIKE'S PEAK HIGHWAY IS PLANNED BY STATES

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., March 27.—Delegations from several western states met here yesterday and organized the Pike's Peak Ocean-to-Ocean Highway. The plan is to build a road which will run through Illinois from Springfield to Hannibal; Mo.; St. Joseph, Mo.; Colorado Springs to the Pacific Coast. It is to connect with a road from the east at Springfield. The road already has been laid out. Officers of the association are: C. F. Adams, Chillicothe, Mo., president; A. W. Henderson, Colorado Springs, Colo., secretary-treasurer; A. Q. Miller, Belleville, Kansas; George McIninch, St. Joseph, Mo.; and Edwin H. White, Springfield, Ill., vice-president. National aid for the road is to be asked.

JOSEPH E. BAKER

The death of Joseph E. Baker, editorial writer of THE TRIBUNE, is the passing of one of the most conspicuous professional newspaper men on the Pacific Coast. He was a native of the South and during the Civil War was in Texas, where he saw some Confederate military service, and where he also did a full man's part in compelling proper and humane treatment of Union prisoners of war. At the close of civil strife he went to Mexico, then in the tumult and tempest of the tragic reign of the Emperor Maximilian, and with letters of free transit from both the Imperial and the Revolutionary authorities, young Baker traversed the country twice and witnessed the ebb and flow of the wild tides of passion and patriotism, and felt the impulse of that movement which was to end at Queretaro, where Maximilian died like a philosopher, and Porfirio Diaz planted the germ of that power destined to fall before the mystic Madero.

Baker was at that time barely out of his teens, and that he kept his poise and footing in such a time and in the midst of such confusion and alarm proved in him the self-dependent quality which was the master characteristic of his after life.

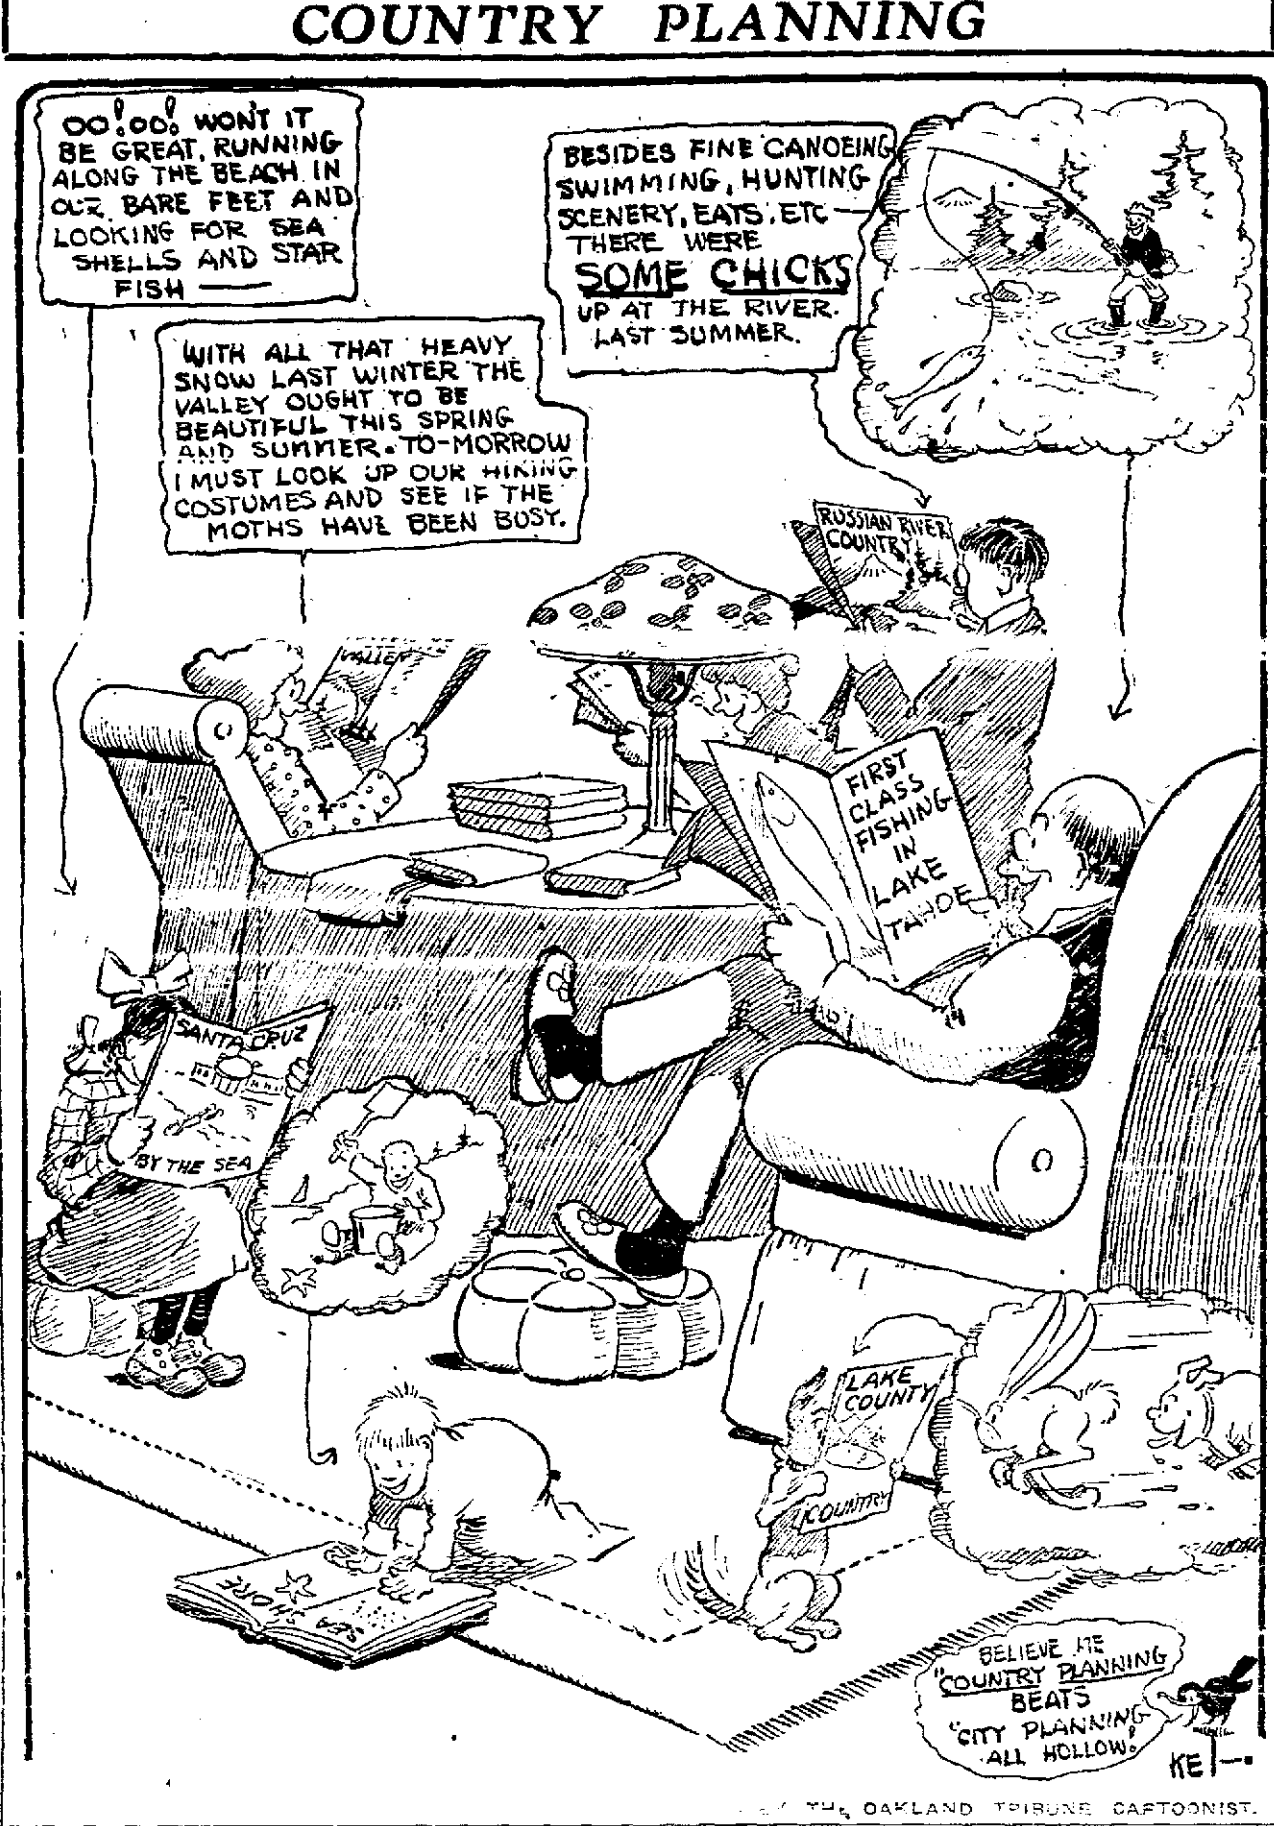

Following his experience in Mexico he went to South America, and in the course of an investigation of agricultural possibilities ascended the Amazon river to the furthest point reached by a white man up to that time. He then penetrated Southern Brazil, entering by Rio Janeiro, and collected a vast amount of the most interesting information about that country and its people. Returning to his own country, he found the South still disturbed by the results of the recent conflict. He found the lines drawn strictly between those who had served the lost cause and those to whom it was lost. To his independent and humane spirit these conditions held out no lure, and he turned westward to Nevada, where the fresh mining discoveries were drawing a mass of high-minded and high-hearted men, who did not ask each other about the past, but where every man went to judgment on his actual assay of quality and character.

There his free spirit expanded to all the wide borders of a gold frontier and he added to that store of experience which became the intellectual capital he was later to invest in professional journalism. He had some newspaper experience in Nevada, enlarged it in country journalism in California, and finally led him to the press of San Francisco a career as a writer which began on first rank in his profession. Of this career sixteen years were in continuous service on the OAKLAND TRIBUNE. His command of style was superb, while none has excelled him in versatility. In fine English he had command of humor, wit, satire, pathos and persiflage. His didactic writing showed the talent of a master, while in argumentation his keen blade cut to a conclusion with irresistible force.

He made an editorial page at once a luxury and a necessity to the reader, and in doing so seemed to tap at will all the resources of history and literature.

Besides his professional qualifications he had a personality no one will forget. Courteous and considerate, his unquenchable optimism and infectious cheerfulness made him a delightful companion and the social impulse of any company in which he mingled.

Upon this career and these endearing qualities Time, the remorseless, has foreclosed. The space between his full activity and the pallid lapse of all his fine powers was a brief step. The thousands whom he instructed, amused and entertained for a generation by pouring the resources of his mind, have followed him in thought, as he passed through the low portal beneath whose lintel all must bow, and though the sun shines and nature displays every beauty and bounty, from those who knew him has passed something the days will not bring back.

who, honestly and as a matter of conscience observe another day than the first of the week. It is manifestly unfair to compel a man who conscientiously refrains from all labor on Saturday, also refrain from labor and amusement on Sunday simply because there are more persons who believe that the first day is the Sabbath than there are who believe that the seventh day is holy.

In the theological dispute we are not greatly interested. But in the maintenance of civil and religious liberty we are earnestly and always interested. Without those noble and precious liberties life is not worth the living. And we most assuredly believe that the Seventh Day Adventists are right in contending for those liberties and heartily do we wish them courage in their good fight.

Less Pickled, and More Natural Publicity.

The sun has been with us in a most marked and somewhat uncomfortable degree during the week. It has come after a storm and reversed all traditions regarding March coming in like a lion and going out like a lamb. And with the sun comes the song of praise for Alameda County, the nature-written story of the blossoms.

THE TRIBUNE recently reproduced a picture of an Alameda county orchard. It was good to look at, and like the lines of the Prince of Pilsen, it "breathes the breath of springtime." It had in this reincarnation of the lovely grove the reflection of the things that are to come—the record fruit crop of this blessed community.

There has not been enough of promotion of the great agricultural resources of Alameda and its neighbor counties. The fruit that is placed in jars that magnify and occupy stately and unseen places in "exhibits" by commercial or other bodies, do not constitute what a community desires in the matter of showing of its products. The jar and its pickled contents to a certain extent prove that there is a spirit of preservation extant, a spirit of desire to keep something that we can say to our neighbors is "all ours," but the trees themselves, the broad fields of grain and the activities that they represent can never be successfully canned except for the open market. The resources that we have must first be developed, then pictured and then sold to men who will make of them even more than we.

Will Make Money By Square Deal.

A new taxicab concern has its vehicles on the streets and promises reasonable rates. If it makes good its promises, it will not only earn big dividends in cash, but also large returns in public good will. For if ever a city was at the mercy of bunksmen in the disguise of taxi drivers it has been Oakland. The charges were extortionate and the arithmetic used in computing time and distance was absolutely weird. The Oakland taxi drivers have been the only mathematicians extant who could add one mile to one hour and find the quotient to be half a day and sixty thousand feet, lacking just one inch.

There is room for a decent taxi concern here, with reasonable rate and meters that don't lie, and it will have plenty of business and make money. Oakland citizens have not patronized taxicabs to any great extent for the simple reason that when a man has been held up once he shies when he sees another hold-up man heading his way. But lots of folks would use the taxi frequently if they were certain of being asked to pay only a reasonable fare for the distance actually traversed.

The whole business of transporting passengers for pay in any kind of wheeled vehicles should be strictly regulated by ordinance and the ordinance enforced to the letter.

COUNTRY PLANNING

GOOD TEMPER

Quarrelling is ill-bred. A bad-tempered person is never a popular one. You defeat your own ends. The woman who can keep cool always has the best of it.

Losing the temper warps the judgment and makes you say and do things that your calmer moments will discountenance.

It is ruinous to the looks. The utmost beauty of feature and complexion cannot counterbalance a scowl or rage or a sullen expression.

An even temper is a big factor in success. This does not mean no temper. The woman who is too good natured, or too indifferent ever to feel the impulse to wrath is very apt to be that poor creature who is called "too good."

But it is not necessary to get angry to prevent being imposed upon.

POINTED PARAGRAPHS

And lovers rush in where husbands fear to tread. There is usually a way to get around any kind of rule.

A word to the wife is sufficient to start a rough house. In this land of plenty there are plenty of people who haven't.

The girl who can't sing and won't sing is entitled to her choice of husbands. Adam's downfall was due to an apple, but many another downfall can be traced to a peach.

But the average man would have no use for mirrors if he could see himself in them as others see him.

Take good care of what little common sense you have, for the world's supply doesn't begin to equal the demand.

Today's huds may be tomorrow's wall-flowers.

Don't make a specialty of thinking second-hand thoughts.

PASSING OF THE PROSPECTOR

The prospector is not making new discoveries in old districts and few new discoveries in new territory because he thinks it is folly to open up a new prospect until the old one is sold. He sees properties with 1000 feet or more of useful development, making what he considers a good showing and warranting vigorous continued development, so year after year without opportunity to make a sale. He observes that the owners, because of poverty or discouragement, resort whenever possible to a lease and bond to men without capital or other assets in order to avoid expenditure for annual assessment work. These lessees in order to make beans and bacon "pick the eyes out of the mine" to make shipping ore, which upon the termination of the bond leaves it less salable than at first. The prospector is, because of these discouragements, losing faith in man though not in nature. His faith in nature is steadfast and enduring, but he has been taught by experience that under present conditions there is an overproduction of well-developed prospects, "near mines"—and until a bona fide sale occurs now and then he will only half-heartedly work his claims and will make but fitful efforts to find new ones. It is manifestly absurd for any one man to decide from personal observation that there is an exhaustion of the easily discoverable ore bodies in the western states. It would take him more than 75 years to visit the 150 mining districts of the 15 states, devoting only a week to a district, and assuming that he has a perfect knowledge of the Mining Journal.

A DINNER FOR TEN

The cost of living is largely a matter of family but that can save money on their or small. If he has strength of philosophy to do so. At an entertainment in Philadelphia, the other day, a woman gave a dinner for ten people, and the entire cost of it was $1.15. The bill of fare was roast beef, baked macaroni, scalloped potatoes, tomatoes and brown betty pudding. There was plenty of it and it was all good.

New Yorkers can do that, if they are only careful, and see that there is no waste. It doesn't take so much to feed a person if he goes at the work intelligently and makes every bit of the food he pays for count. There is scarcely a time he laid enough money by to buy a little piece of ground upon which to raise potatoes, onions, tomatoes, flowers and eggs.

It is in the intelligent use of the head of life that make it rich. A person who simply "feeds" on his income, is always living at a loss. The very exercise of care and intelligence is healthful. There is such a thing as economizing and being stingy enough at the same time. The person who lives on chunks instead of slices, on scraps instead of morsels, wastes his salaries and injures their health. Ohio State Journal.

20 YEARS AGO TODAY

The subject of granting a franchise to the Oakland Water Company from Alameda through Mount Eden, San Lorenzo, San Leandro to Oakland came up at the supervisors meeting. The ordinance granting the company a franchise for fifty years was read and unanimously passed.

The Oakland High School baseball nine succeeded in defeating the University team by a score of 1 to 5.

At the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Lyon the Women's Christian Temperance Union will celebrate the nineteenth anniversary of the birth of Neal Dow, the "veteran apostle of temperance."

Articles of incorporation of the Oakland Free Clinic have been filed with the county clerk. The directors elected for the first year are: Dr. M. Fisher, Dr. R. H. Hill, Dr. H. H. Woolsey, Dr. M. L. Johnson, Dr. K. H. G. Thomas and Dr. H. E. Miller.

The Women's Remedial Institute of Oakland will incorporate. The purpose of the institution is to cure women of the cocaine, morphine and liquor habit. The officers are: President, Dr. L. J. Kellogg; Vice-President, Mrs. Judge Haight of Berkeley; second vice-president, Mrs. A. C. Bangs of Berkeley; secretary, Mrs. L. M. Grove of Piedmont; assistant secretary, Mrs. E. B. Musser; treasurer, Mrs. S. Bartlett. The directors are: Mrs. O. M. Kellogg, Mrs. Clara O. Southard, Mrs. B. Musser, Mrs. Mary S. Bartlett, Mrs. V. I. M. Grove, Mrs. A. L. Woods, Mrs. Judge Haight, Mrs. A. C. Bangs, Dr. H. C. Lukes and Colonel Dargie.

Yesterday morning, for the first time in the history of the parish, the doors of Father King's church on Jefferson and Eleventh streets were closed to worshippers. Those who called to pray were informed that the church would remain closed during the day, because blood had been shed upon the floor and the sanctuary had been desecrated. The announcement created the greatest amazement and horror, but was only too true, because within the last few days, while upon her knees in prayer, Mrs. John Brady was shot and killed by her husband, who then turned the gun upon himself with like fatal result. Father King later notified Archbishop Riordan of the desecration, and later in the day was authorized to rededicate the church, which was done in the afternoon by Father King, Savin and Minn.

The Freedom of Religious Faith.

There is in session in this city a body of men, the superiors of whom in industry, orderliness, loyalty, honesty, good repute and all that makes for the best citizenship, we think it would be difficult to find. These are the Seventh Day Adventists, now holding their biennial conference.

The members of this church observe Saturday as the Sabbath, and no matter whether this is sound theology or not, it is their belief and their undoubted constitutional right as citizens and free men and free women, so to keep the seventh day as holy.

Observing the seventh day as the Sabbath, it is at once a violence offered to their faith and an unreasonable business hardship to compel them by law to observe also the first day of the week as a day in which they shall not labor or carry on their usual business and professional avocations. And upon these grounds these good people are strenuously opposed to all so-called Sunday laws.

We think they are absolutely right in their contentions for their civil privileges under the guarantees of the constitution. They have an indefeasible right to their faith. They are entitled to religious liberty. And it is impossible to say that a citizen who with, and which he believes it sinful to keep as the Sabbath, enjoys religious freedom within the true intent and the full meaning of the constitutional guarantees.

The Supreme Court of the United States has decided that it is within the police powers of a State to make and enforce laws requiring work to be done on Sunday. But as a matter of justice and fair play, such laws should expressly exempt all citizens

TO DARKEN HAIR APPLY SAGE TEA

A Few Applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur Brings Back Its Vigor, Color, Gloss and Thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant, remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Just a few applications will prove a revelation if your hair is fading, gray or dry, scraggly and thin. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-made tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle at drug stores. Known as "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," this avoids a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractive. Weyth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant.

SUFFRAGE DEFEATED; VOTED DOWN BY SENATE

WASHINGTON, March 19.—The Senate today voted down the Ashurst resolution to provide for a constitutional amendment extending suffrage to women. The result was 35 to 34. It would have required a two-thirds vote to pass the resolution.

How to Prevent Acid Stomachs and Food Fermentation

By a Stomach Specialist.
As a specialist who has spent many years in the study and treatment of stomach troubles, I have been forced to the conclusion that most people who complain of stomach trouble possess stomachs that are absolutely healthy and normal. The real trouble, that which causes all the pain and difficulty, is when the stomach is not properly functioning. It is not only an excellent hair darkener but at the same time removes dandruff and other ills of the scalp. I use it myself and have no hesitancy in recommending it to my patients. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost.

taken from Fred Altschager he was so weak from loss of blood that he was not able to sign his name, and the fragmentary statement is attested only by a rough cross placed by the feeble hand of the dying man.

Altschager told the police in his dying statement that he was almost sure he had recognized his assailant as a man who had formerly worked at the drug store. The police are working on this clue.

At 10:30, when Dr. Weber was notified of the shooting, he informed the police. Altschager was rushed to the sanitarium, where he slowly recovered consciousness when the wound had been bound up. At 2

PHYSICIAN GIVES RECIPE FOR GRAY HAIR

A Well-Known Physician and Author Gives Simple Home Recipe That Will Darken Gray Hair.

Dr. Stanton Burroughs, the well-known physician and author, recently made the following statement: "Gray hair can be easily darkened by the following simple recipe which you can mix at home: To 1 oz. of water add a small box of Barbo Compound, 1 oz. bay rum and 1/4 oz. glycerine. Apply it to the hair every other day until the desired shade is obtained. It not only is an excellent hair darkener but at the same time removes dandruff and other ills of the scalp. I use it myself and have no hesitancy in recommending it to my patients. These ingredients can be bought at any drug store at very little cost."

SURPRISES MANY
IN OAKLAND
The QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-Ika, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis, is surprising Oakland people. Many have found that this simple remedy drains so much foul matter from the system that a SINGLE DOSE relieves constipation, sour stomach and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY. Adler-Ika is the most thorough bowel cleanser ever sold. Osgood Bros., druggists, cor. Broadway and Seventh and Washington and Twelfth.

CONFER WITH COUNCIL ON ACCOUNTING SYSTEM

Tax Association Representatives Appear Before Municipal Body

A fight on the part of the Alameda County Tax Association, backed by improvement clubs and other organizations of Oakland, to force the city officials to put in a general accounting system adopted a year ago on the recommendation of the Klink-Bean Company, expert accountants, is to be started as a result of a controversy in the city council today.

Mark L. Requa, president of the Tax Association, appeared before the city council today to protest against the criticism of his association and of the accounting system made by Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. C. Turner. It developed during the controversy today that City Auditor George E. Gross and City Expert L. G. Jordan have devised practical system. We have been blocked in every way possible." Mayor Mott attempted to pour oil upon the troubled waters of the controversy by declaring that he hoped the matter would be adjusted and that he was anxious that a system should be put in. He said:

"It is humanly possible to put in this system. They who claim that there was no complete system of accounting, that the efficiency in the various departments was merely nominal, that there was no central office to collate the records, that there was no general statement from which information could be obtained, except that the city had a system of accounts, that there was no administrative report of any significance, that there was no means of judging economy or extravagance in the various departments and that there was an absolute need of the installation of a new system. He declared that after a conference with the firm of Lester, Herrick & Herrick, the firm of Klink-Bean & Company, and with Peter White of New York, the well-known international experts, it had been decided that the system to be installed must be an entirely new one and that no system based upon an extension and remodeling of the systems already in use, would be of value."

GROSS PROPOSES SYSTEM.
Gross replied that he did not consider the Klink-Bean system suitable for adoption by the city, although some good features had been taken from it in the system that he and Jordan and certain other city officials had been at work upon. He stated that the system planned by the city officials was almost ready to be presented to the city council for its approval, and he hoped to be able to install it at the commencement of the fiscal year, July 1.

Requa declared that the Tax Association had little faith in a system that was devised by individuals unassisted by some reputable firm of expert accountants, and that he feared that nothing would be done in the matter, and that he considered the city officials had enough work to do in their regular municipal departments without burdening themselves with attempting to do the work of experts on accounting. He said:

"An attempt was made to obtain the co-operation of the city auditor and the city officials for the installation of the Klink-Bean system. Representatives of the firm of Klink & Bean came to me some time ago and told me that so far as they were concerned the whole situation had become impossible and that they could not be responsible in any way for the system that would finally be installed. They declared that the proposed changes would, in a large measure, destroy the worth of the system."

ALLEGES IMPRACTICABILITY.
"All we ask is that the city shall employ some firm of accountants, we do not care who, as long as they are reputable, to assist the officials now working on this matter to put in an adequate system. The present system is absolutely inefficient and is not a standards. The Tax Association brought out from New York Mr. Peter White, who installed the Metz system of accounting in New York City, to consult in this work, and a system approved by him was finally presented to the city. This system was accepted by the council and the Klink-Bean & Co. were paid by the City of Oakland for devising the system. The lack of harmonious action on the part of the city officials, particularly Auditor Gross and Accountant Jordan, looking to the installation of this system resulted in Klink-Bean & Co. refusing to be responsible for the changes demanded, and a letter was written by them severing their connection with the work. Since that time numerous efforts have been made by Mayor Mott, by Mr. Harrison S. Robinson, civil service commissioner, and by Mr. M. L. Requa, president of the Tax Association, to have the system installed. Because of the antagonism of Mr. Gross and the hopeless attitude of Mr. Jordan, nothing has been accomplished in that direction.

STATEMENT MISLEADING.
"The statement made in the Oakland Enquirer of March 13 that the expenditure of $3500 has simply resulted in the installation of a system of accounts, the practical value, is absolutely misleading. The county accounting system is installed and is working satisfactorily. The city system will work satisfactorily if it is ever installed. This has never been done, so any statement as to its being impractical or a failure, is premature. All that the Tax Association requests is that a recognized accounting firm be employed in a consulting capacity to co-operate with the city officials in the installation of a modern system that will give necessary information. Of course more than suggest to the city officials that this should be done. It will also suggest to the city officials to employ representatives of the following organizations: Oakland Commercial Club, Chamber of Commerce, Merchants' Exchange, Alameda County Civic Association, Progress and Prosperity Committee, Manufacturers' Committee, Oakland Rotary Club, and Donor Town Association, with the request that the whole matter be laid before these various organizations in the hope that a united demand will be made at the request of the Tax Association for the employment of some recognized accounting firm, preferably Klink-Bean & Co., to remove their antagonistic attitude toward the city of Oakland, and have done a great deal of work in the preparation of this system. That this accounting firm act with the city officials in the installation of a modern accounting system. With this as a basis for determining unit costs, efficiency and economy may be better obtained. That it is necessary to install some such system of accounting is evidenced by the last annual report of the auditor of the City of Oakland.

CLASSIFIED STATEMENT.
"In the Classified statement of disbursements audited during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1913, is found under the heading of automobiles, a total made up of several items amounting to $367.89. Anyone reading this report would naturally assume that this represented the entire automobile expense for the city."

through the various other headings of the report, however, we find that the total expenditure for automobiles in the city of Oakland for the year in question was $1,016.26, made up as follows:

Departments other than Fire Department and police patrol—	$15,347.31
Maintenance	12,841.79
New autos	12,841.79
Total	$41,030.89
The above amount is exclusive of chauffeurs' salaries if any.
Repairs	797.19
Fire department—
2 auto pump engines	1,000.00
1 chemical engine	500.00
2 hose wagons	1,000.00
New parts and repairs	1,000.00
Total	$4,500.00
Grand total	$45,530.89

Orchardist Puts in Dam and Says Supply Stream Belongs to Him.

VALLEJO, March 19.—Is the city of Vallejo going to be deprived of the water which goes over the diverting dam and flows down Green Valley creek, and as a result be forced to draw on its storage reservoirs in Wild Horse Valley several months earlier than had been anticipated? Such would appear to be the case, as Deputy Water Superintendent Charles Olsen, who came down from Cordelia this morning, reported that Fred S. Jones, the Green Valley orchardist, claims all of the water flowing in the stream and yesterday entered the creek for the purpose of constructing a dam which is designed to prevent the water from reaching the municipal pumping plant. Jones also objects to the municipal establishment of a pumping system at the Luchetti place for the purpose of picking up the water which disappears underground and threatens to injure the Great Western Power Company from running a power line to the proposed pumping plant.

MARE ISLAND NOTES

INFIRMARY INMATES HONOR ST. PATRICK

SAN LEANDRO, March 19.—Fiddles made of clear glass and other improved musical instruments manipulated by the Irish inmates of the County Infirmary scraped and banged out the songs of "Old Ireland" while old women who usually get around with the aid of a cane or crutch danced Irish jig and sang songs in honor of St. Patrick's day.

Mrs. O'Neill, who despite her age is one of the fullest of the inmates regaled her companions with song and dance. Her enthusiasm was infectious and forgetting pains and aches the old daddies and women started dancing jigs with an energy which would have done credit to a fiddler. P. D. Patrick and "Coffee Town" also joined in.

The impromptu concert was in full swing for over an hour, each one of the inmates giving a song, a dance, or a violin or piano selection. Dr. C. A. Willis was one of the audience at the concert and says that a little more of such diversion would improve the efficiency in promoting the health and good spirits of the aged patients as any amount of treatment.

A moving picture show at the infirmary for the amusement of the inmates is one of Dr. Willis' pet schemes which he intends to have carried out. He has already had a talk with the manager of a motion picture company and it should not be long before the old folks will be able to go to the movies.

CYPRESS CAMP IS RECORD BREAKER

Woodmen's Lodge Shows That It Can Do Things When It Gets Busy.

HAYWARD, March 19.—Cypress Camp, Woodmen of the World which celebrated its coming of age at an affair Tuesday evening has a record of which any lodge organization might be proud. The splendid camp celebration in which Cypress Camp celebrated its twenty-first anniversary is one of the finest lodge homes in the State and is the only one built and owned by a single Camp of Woodmen.

Fifty members of Cypress Camp attended the anniversary celebrations which included addresses and music. J. A. Barber, also one of the first members of the Camp spoke of the progress made by the Haywood Woodmen. Cypress Camp started with a membership of 21.

There are now over 300 members and the Camp continues to grow steadily. During the 21 years of its existence the Camp has given out $68,000 for sick benefits and to the widows and other dependents of deceased members. Organizer Hughes also addressed the gathering while vocal solos were rendered by John Allen Park.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS ELECT OFFICERS

Next Convention of the Order Will Be Held at Los Angeles.

FRESNO, March 19.—With the election of officers and choosing of the city for the session of 1917, the fraternal convention of the Royal Neighbors of California closed this afternoon. Last evening the local camp of Modern Woodmen of America tendered the visitors a reception. Other features of the day were a luncheon given by the local camp, and automobile rides through orchards and vineyards.

Los Angeles was awarded the next state convention. The new officers are: State orator, Mrs. Minerva Lander of Hawthorne; vice-orator, Mrs. L. A. Campbell of Los Angeles; delegates: Mrs. J. A. Wells of Los Gatos, retiring state orator; Mrs. Viola Newman of Los Angeles and Mrs. Jennie Foster of Richmond. These will attend the national convention at Rock Island, Ill., to be held in conjunction with the national gathering of the Modern Woodmen of America.

FIRM HOLDS THREE DAYS' FETE OF COLORS

In an exact reproduction of the pink and gold boudoir of Madame du Barry, where the subdued lights bring out in all the bewitching charms and fineness of the linings for the fete of the firm of J. Magrin & Co. of San Francisco are holding a three days' fete under the name of "Tea a la du Barry."

This is the first affair of the sort held on the coast and is calculated to exploit the undergarments de luxe fashioned for the season. In this exquisitely appointed room a reception is held daily from 10 o'clock until 2 and living models float among the guests arrayed in so-called "intimate" garments, showing new designs, fabrics and laces. It would seem from the exhibits that the undergarments this season are designed along lines of unusual attractiveness and are both fitted to be worn either in boudoir or on the street.

The negligees in silk crepe, chiffons, satins and rare laces are modeled along Grecian lines, combined with the present Parisian style, the merest suggestion of the bustle noted.

Every needed article in lingerie, from the silk bloomers and vest to the most wonderful of elaborate evening toilettes, are displayed by these du Barry models, but far and away the most fascinating and adorable are the delicious breakfast gowns and accompanying "sleeper caps"; in fact, it is permissible this year to receive one's callers in the afternoon arrayed in one of these tete-a-tete, or breakfast gowns.

U. S. SUBMARINE K-4 LAUNCHED AT SEATTLE

Active Worker Enjoys Games

FERN DAMON.

Among the tots who have made the Oakland playgrounds popular is Fern Damon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Damon of this city. She enjoys the games in the recreation centers which are supervised by trained playground workers.

The spring activities are now in full swing in all the playgrounds. The folk-dances are being taught to hundreds of little folks, who will appear at the annual Mayday festival to be conducted in Lakeside Park, May 9 under the direction of the Oakland playground commission.

The baseball season in the pleasure grounds will soon be brought to a close and the kids will be called to practice for the spring playground meet to be conducted in Bushrod Park playground. The individual athletic tests will begin for the boys and girls in the latter part of April when bronze medals will be presented for athletic skill.

HUNDRED BOYS WILL PLAY AT EXPOSITION

One hundred lads representing the schools of this city compose the Oakland Boys' Exposition band, which is now practicing weekly under the leadership of the local spring bandmaster of the Oakland school department. The musical organization is steadily growing and many of the most talented pupils in the local schools have joined the exposition band, which will be heard at the world's fair in 1915. Before an applicant is admitted into the exposition band, he must pass a rigid examination. The standards are high and the young folks must be prepared to answer all questions pertaining to music and its history.

A number of concerts will be given by the boys and girls of the Oakland school system during the musical program at the exposition to be given by the Mothers' Club of the school tomorrow evening, when a number of children will sing and dance. The proceeds will be placed in a fund for the purchase of band uniforms.

At the affair to be given by the Parent-Teachers' Association of Franklin School April 1, the boys' band of that institution will also perform in the Home Theater of East Oakland.

A number of concerts will be given by the bands and orchestras this term under the direction of the board of education. The dates have not as yet been announced.

LEE MCAULEY NAMED TO SUCCEED JEFFERY

Lee McAuley, one of the leading track performers in the Oakland High School, has been appointed the successor of Elton Jeffery, who recently left school. The captain-elect was one of the most skilled pole-vaulters in the institution. McAuley stated in an interview several days ago that he will endeavor to continue the work of his predecessor and will secure the honor, who will be likely to win the big "40."

The last track interclass meet of the Oakland High School was won by the seniors. Many of the stalwart athletes of the school carried off the honors.

The spring football practice will soon begin under the direction of Captain Graves. Many new recruits will "sign up" for the team.

PUPILS TO PRESENT "HAMLET" AT SCHOOL

At the commencement exercises of the graduating class of the Grant school the pupils will present Shakespeare's "Hamlet." Rehearsals will soon commence for the production, which will be the closing event to be given by the class of June, 1914. There are forty-nine boys and girls who will graduate with that class.

Before the close of the term there will be a number of debates and entertainments. According to reports the members of the June class will be the honored guests at a number of affairs to be given by the underclassmen, prior to their graduation.

The calendar of social activities has not as yet been completed.

FORWARD PLANS OF MISSOURI'S BUILDING

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., March 19.—Plans for the Missouri building at the Panama Exposition at San Francisco were forwarded today to the Exposition authorities for approval after having been sanctioned by the State Commission headed by Governor Major, which has the building matter in hand.

The building is to be of stucco and will cost $42,000. It will be colonial in architecture and will resemble Mount Vernon, the home of Washington.

A complete library of Missouri authors will be a feature of the exhibit. An auditorium for lectures and moving pictures where the resources of Missouri will be taken of and shown, will be a part of the building.

ALAMEDA COUNTY SHIPS MUCH RHUBARB EAST

Alameda county canneries are now busy on the rhubarb crop and a big shipment is being made back East. The bulk of the crop from this district is being despatched to Chicago and other eastern markets, one shipper alone sending off 200 boxes this week. Over a carload of rhubarb has been sent off daily from San Lorenzo for the past two weeks and the farmers are receiving good prices.

ST. PAUL'S CONGREGATION TO MEET THIS EVENING

For the purpose of discussing plans for raising $400 monthly to pay the interest on the new St. Paul's church building at Montecito avenue and Bay place, there will be a meeting of the congregation this evening in the vestry rooms of the church, the new edifice, which was recently dedicated, is one of the most imposing structures on this side of the bay. Rev. Alexander Allen is the rector. Several months ago Winston Churchill, author of the novel "The Inside of the Cup," preached a sermon from that pulpit. Many distinguished preachers have delivered addresses there.

Latest reports state that subscriptions for securing additional funds for the debt will be obtained within a very short period. St. Paul's congregation is one of the most opulent in this city and the people are generously disposed. The subscription list is rapidly being built tonight.

LABOR CANDIDATES WIN ELECTION IN TRANSVAAL

'WIRELESSEYE' FOR UNCLE SAM

Former Official of Spitzescope Concern Would Interest Navy

M. C. Blume, formerly secretary of the Spitzescope Company, has been attempting to dispose of the patent for the so-called "wireless eye" to the United States naval authorities at Mare Island, according to information received here today. Blume, who is said to have quarreled with Samuel Spitz, the inventor of the machine, called upon Commander F. M. Bennett, U. S. N., at Mare Island, today, and informed him that J. W. Schultze, a heavy stockholder in the Spitzescope company, had disposed of the right to the patent to the British government for the sum of $4,000,000.

Blume declared that the "wireless eye" invention was a success, and Spitz, who will appear for trial in the Oakland Police Court March 26, has been unjustly treated by the Oakland police in the matter. Blume told the head of the navy yard that the "wireless eye" was not only a success, but that he was also negotiating with Germany on the matter, and suggested to Bennett that the United States government ought to get hold of the invention first.

According to Inspector St. Clair Hodgkins, who investigated the Spitzescope in Oakland, the invention is a rank fake. Spitz was arrested by Hodgkins and is charged with a felony in obtaining $1500 for stock in the company from Dr. A. T. Pierce. He is on bond and has been working to perfect a demonstration of the machine at the court of the grand jury.

Three New Buildings For Chicago University

CHICAGO, March 19.—Donations to the University of Chicago during the past year amounted to $1,507,928, according to the annual report of President Harry Pratt Judson, which was made public today. The university's investment in real estate and equipment now amounts to $21,055,420. The endowment of the university is $18,000,000, which is invested in stocks, bonds and mortgages.

President Judson's report announced that three new buildings will be erected on the campus within the next year. One of the buildings will be an addition to the university high school group, another will house the student's observatory and the third will be used for the teaching of foreign languages.

Pope Celebrates His Name Day in Storm

ROME, March 19.—"This is a salute for my name day," explained Pope Pius when he was awakened early today by a terrific storm, accompanied by vivid flashes of lightning and loud peals of thunder.

His holiness shortly afterward celebrated mass, and a fatiguing day's work ensued, although every function was cut out as brief a period as possible.

Hundreds of telegrams and addresses of congratulation were received at the Vatican from all parts of the world, many of them coming from the United States.

The Pope dictated the replies in several cases personally. His holiness appeared to be in excellent spirits.

Piledriver Blazes Up on Bay Front

A huge piledriver belonging to the San Francisco Bridge Company caught fire this morning at Nineteenth avenue on the bay front, where the company is engaged in laying piles. The oil from a donkey engine set fire to the driver, the lower part of which was soon ablaze. The men of No. 6 engine had considerable difficulty in coping with the fire, having to carry the hose across two railroad tracks, but they prevented the fire from spreading and from completely destroying the pile-driver. The damage amounted to about $400.

'Beamed' by Beam, Memory Returns

Going into the cellar of his home and bumping his head, by accident, on a beam, George Faust, who for several weeks has been completely without memory, has emerged from his mental cloud. The bump evidently jolted back his wandering memory. He returned to his wife, upstairs, asking how he "got home," and declared he remembered nothing since attending a rehearsal of an amateur play, shortly before his disappearance.

The man wandered away and was lost until his wife appeared to take charge of him. It was believed that he had been the victim of foul play.

Several physicians worked over him, but were unable to aid his memory until the accidental striking of his head did the work. He is an employee of the Southern Pacific.

Pinned Under Floor Of Wrecked Building

ST. LOUIS, March 19.—His call for a drink of water early today led to the rescue of Thomas Burke from the ruins of the St. Louis Seed Company's building, 37 hours after the structure collapsed under the weight of a fallen wall. The seed company building was demolished Tuesday afternoon when one of the walls of the Missouri Athletic Club fell on it. The Missouri Athletic Club building was destroyed by fire ten days ago with a loss of 30 lives. Rescuers were started by Burke's call for help.

After the force of 80 men had worked for half an hour they found Burke pinned under a section of flooring. He was taken from the ruins and rushed to the city hospital, where he was treated for injuries of his feet.

Near Burke was found the body of an unidentified man, bringing the total number of dead found to six.

Suffragists Oppose Early Senate Action

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Protests against immediate action on the proposed constitutional amendment extending suffrage to women, under debate in the Senate, continued to reach the capitol today from suffrage leaders throughout the country. Senators leading the fight for the amendment, however, were prepared for a tight vote within a day or two, and that no they almost certainly overwhelming defeat, nothing can be gained by further efforts to delay action.

Senator Ashurst in charge of the proposed amendment, reiterated his assertion that a majority of the senators wanted immediate action. He said he had canvassed the entire membership of the Senate and found sentiment strongly in favor of disposing of the question as quickly as possible.

Earth Slide Leaves Large Canal Job

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Though merchant ships are expected to be passing through the Panama canal in the course of trade within the next three months, the canal makers still have much work ahead of them. Nearly half of what is known as the "Culebra cut," the earth slide in the Culebra cut, many hundreds of thousands of cubic yards of earth must be removed to broaden the channel to its full width. During the month of February, it was announced today, the total amount of excavation was 1,430,000 cubic yards, as compared with 1,514,972 yards in January.

Search for Weapons Ordered by Court

PORTLAND, Ore., March 19.—Because of intense bitterness said to exist between the respective friends of the victim and the alleged slayer, all spectators were searched for weapons in Judge W. N. Gatens' department of the Circuit Court, where Luigi Farcia was placed on trial. No weapons were found.

Farcia is accused of the murder of Mike Zebola on January 7, 1914, in a saloon which he owned. Farcia, an Italian, was out in full force for the hearing, and while the two factions held aloof from each other, there was no outward demonstration of enmity.

Pre-Nuptial Agreement Of Lord Camoys Filed

PROVIDENCE, R. I., March 19.—A pre-nuptial agreement made by Ralph Francis Julian Stoner, Lord Camoys of Henley-on-the-Thames, England, and Miss Mildred Constance Sherman, daughter of Mrs. William Watt Sherman of Newport, who were married about a year ago, was filed with the recorder of deeds yesterday. The agreement transfers all the estate and property of Lady Camoys to the control of her husband, Lord Camoys, and Fletcher S. Mason of this city and provides that the income shall be paid her until she becomes 35 years old.

Mrs. Wilson Recovers From Fall on Rug

WASHINGTON, March 19.—Mrs. Wilson recovered from effects of a fall over a rug on the White House floor. White House officials said today that Mrs. Wilson had undergone a slight operation to correct the effects of the bruise, but they said it was entirely a local one. They denied that social engagements cancelled by members of the family yesterday were on that account.

SEES SPOOK ON ROCKY ROAD TO DUBLIN

Parition; Commercial Values Ignored

HAYWARD, March 19.—Telling a story that rivals the famed tale of "Tam O'Shanter," Arthur Bruck, a local junk dealer, returned to Hayward last night from a ride on the "Rocky Road," a wild story of a monstrous apparition which rose, clothed in black, in the road.

Bruck, who is a local junk dealer, returned to Hayward last night from a ride on the "Rocky Road," a wild story of a monstrous apparition which rose, clothed in black, in the road.

The story is a tale of several whippersnappers who were riding on the "Rocky Road," a wild story of a monstrous apparition which rose, clothed in black, in the road.

Bruck declares that the "ghost" was tangible enough to touch, but he didn't stop to examine his other qualities. That is, he says, the horse didn't stop.

The authorities are investigating the circumstances surrounding the frequent appearance of the "ghost," believing that a principal note of the "ghost" is at the bottom of the puzzle.

Bruck declares that he encountered the "spook" on the "Rocky Road," near Hayward, at a deserted portion of the "Rocky Road," a wild story of a monstrous apparition which rose, clothed in black, in the road.

I don't know what it was, declared Bruck, but it wasn't an ordinary horse. I'll take oath on that. I was riding alone, and the horse was in the lead. The local authorities are planning a ghost hunt in the near future in the hope of looking up the "apparition."

CHINESE RANCHER ROBBED OF EGGS

Reports Loss of Chickens to Value of $700 During Past Year

Ah Blum, a rancher of Seventy-fourth avenue and the boulevard, reported to the police that chickens and eggs had been stolen from his place. Blum estimates that in the past year over 700 chickens and several hundred eggs had been stolen, the loss amounting to about $700.

Stella Burnett, 640 Willow street, notified the police that a burglar entered her home, broke open a trunk and stole a diamond and ruby ring and clothing. A burglar used a skeleton key to effect entrance to the home of Mrs. A. G. Blake, 60 Eleventh street, and stole a suitcase, clothing and toilet articles.

A. Blatos, 1831 Seventeenth street, reported to the police that his home was entered through a side window and a watch stolen from a trunk.

Mrs. Rose Baquerie, 1116 San Antonio street, reported to the police that a burglar entered her home through a door that had been left unlocked.

Hernandez Arrives From Consultation

NEW YORK, March 19.—General Jose M. Hernandez (El Mocho) arrived here today from Porto Rico, where he has been in consultation, it is said, with General Baptista and other Venezuelan revolutionary leaders. It was said that he soon would go to Port of Spain, whence, it is believed, he intends to invade Venezuela in April.

It is said that the details of the revolution to unseat President Gomez were completed at the conference held in San Juan.

Another Army Officer Is Aviation Victim

SALISBURY, England, March 19.—Another officer of the Royal Flying Corps of the British army was killed here today. Lieutenant H. F. Treby of the Duke of Wellington West Riding regiment was flying in a biplane over the army aviation grounds when the machine side slipped and fell to the earth from a height of 250 feet.

SEVERELY BURNED BY ASHES FROM HER PIPE

Mrs. Charlotte Smith, 93 years of age, is lying in a precarious condition at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Jones, 1125 Fifth street, as the result of having been severely burned last night when she dropped burning ashes from her pipe over her night clothes. Mrs. Smith was enjoying a little after dinner smoke when the accident occurred and was alone in the room. She is an invalid and was unable to help herself when her clothes caught fire.

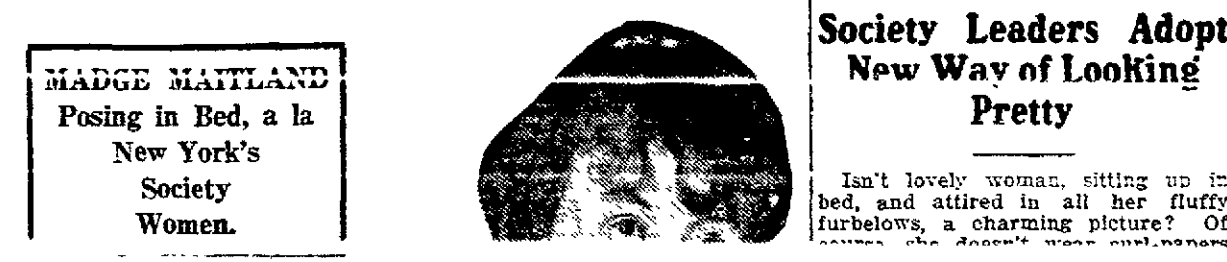

Doctors A. C. Piercy and R. H. F. Carter were summoned and assuaged her suffering. It is thought that her chance of recovery is slight.

GUESTS IN PANIC IN BURNING HOTEL

Forty Persons Imperiled When Flames Envelop Building

MILWAUKEE, March 19.—Guests of the Windsor hotel, numbering nearly 40, were compelled to flee for their lives early today when a fire which broke out in the plant of the Western Newspaper Union, in the south portion of the building, gutted the four-story structure and caused damage to adjoining properties.

Charles Sanberg, lessee of the hotel, said that every guest got out safely. The property damage is estimated at $200,000.

The job department of the Evening Wisconsin, one of Milwaukee's oldest newspapers, was damaged by smoke and water, and the basement, containing the newspaper presses, was flooded several feet.

A fire wall separating the upper floors of the Evening Wisconsin building from the hotel structure saved the newspaper plant.

The Western Newspaper Union's loss is $40,000 and that on the hotel building $40,000.

The Evening Wisconsin's electrical department, which is used to operate the presses and typesetting machines, was put out of commission, but its paper will issue as usual, having accepted an offer of the use of a plant of one of the morning dailies.

'EARTHQUAKE' WAS EXPLOSION SHOCKS

Powder Plant Disaster Shakes Earth Within 100 Miles

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 19.—An explosion at the Equitable Powder Company's plant at Alton, Ill., near here last night, shook territory in Illinois within a distance of 100 miles. The effect of the explosion, however, did not cross the Mississippi river into Missouri.

Henry Miller, night watchman at the plant, and the only man known to have been within a mile of the mill at the time of the explosion, is believed to have been killed, as no trace of him could be found.

Soon after the explosion reports of earthquake shocks began coming in from Decatur, Assumption, Orleans and Centralia, Ill. In most of these places two shocks were felt. At Centralia, more than 50 miles from the site of the explosion, the shocks rattled for five seconds, and in some instances were broken.

At 9:30 o'clock last night a dense smoke carrying a strong odor of burning gunpowder settled over this city, 30 miles from the scene of the explosion. It had taken the black cloud three hours to travel diagonally across the river from Alton to St. Louis. The smoke created much excitement among the theater-going crowds down town, as they were unaware of the cause. Recalling the Missouri Athletic Club disaster and numerous other big midnight fires which have occurred in St. Louis during the last few weeks, people rushed from one street to another in search of what was thought to be a new fire. The smoke caused the city for about fifteen minutes and then passed southward.

Believed Him Dead; He Was in Prison

LEAVENWORTH, Kas., March 19.—Joseph Cook, said to be the son of a wealthy St. Louis man, who has been missing for five years, and whom relatives believed to be dead, was found in the state prison here by his aunt, Miss Amelia Oliver, of Kansas City, Kas., and her sister.

Cook was sentenced in 1902 to from five to 20 years for manslaughter. He said he preferred to complete his term rather than have his relatives learn he was in prison.

Prof. Mercalli Found Burned to Death

NAPLES, March 19.—Professor Giuseppe Mercalli, director of the observatory on Mount Vesuvius, was found burned to death early today in his bedroom. The professor, who also occupied the chair of seismology at the University of Naples, retired to sleep at his usual hour. The cause of the fire is unknown.

POLICE CAN'T PUT THEM OFF

Members Bask in Sunshine and Defy Authorities

SACRAMENTO, March 19.—One hundred and seventy-five members of the Kelly faction of the unemployed army basked in the sunshine on their acre of ground in North Sacramento today, secure from the peace officers as long as they behave themselves.

of armed deputies watching developments.

It is believed the indignation of the unemployed army, which is being taken by the officers to disperse the army. How the men can be ousted from their property as long as they commit no breach of peace is a question.

The first jury trial of the army leaders starts this morning with the case of Edward Teasdale of the Kelly army, charged with vagrancy. General Kelly will be tried tomorrow.

SAYS NO ONE WILL OUST THEM.

The unemployed army, although on their own acre of ground, purchased by one of their number in North Sacramento yesterday, must vacate within two or three days was the decision of District Attorney Wachter today, after a conference with residents in the vicinity. Search is being made today for Captain Butler, said to be one of the main agitators.

The union army faction of 200 that passed through Davis yesterday, was in Woodlawn street last night, and is now on its way to Blaine.

SILVERMINE HEADED NORTH.

REDDING, March 19.—One hundred stragglers from the army of the unemployed, expelled from Sacramento, arrived here at midnight, making the brakemen of a freight train. Fifty more are expected. The railroad company is making no effort to keep the men off freight trains.

Those that remained here today were allowed to pass, but will be sent northward by the police tomorrow.

MORE TROUBLE FOR FRANCE; MONIS OUT

Cabinet Upheaval Made More Acute by Minister's Resignation

PARIS, March 19.—Madame Caillaux's assassination of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro, brought about another change in the French cabinet today when Ernest Monis, minister of marine, added his resignation to the list.

Madame Caillaux is still the object of deep popular sympathy. Crowds of people gathered today at the mid-Lenten holiday to gather at the gates of St. Lazare prison, the women's penitentiary, where she is in custody. The people manifested great curiosity in the visitors to the jail, who included the lawyers engaged for her defense.

In the central districts of Paris, as well as in the more tranquil quarters on the south side of the Seine, the police had taken every precaution to prevent political demonstrations. The residence of M. Caillaux was strongly guarded, as were also the offices of the Figaro, the senate and the chamber.

The resignation of M. Monis was caused by statements made in the chamber of deputies that while he was premier he had exerted powerful influence on the public prosecutor, Victor Babus, to postpone the trial of Henri Rochette, who was alleged to have swindled the public out of sums aggregating $20,000,000 by fraudulent stock transactions. Rochette disappeared while on bail.

Painting Attributed To Leonardo da Vinci

ANGOULEME, France, March 19.—A painting attributed to Leonardo da Vinci has been brought to light through the sale of the effects of a woman who had in her possession a number of objects of art taken from the ruined palace of Francis I.

The picture represents a female figure bearing a strange resemblance to Mona Lisa, holding in her hands a child whose features recall those of Francis I. Several artists who have examined the picture say that it is the work of Leonardo da Vinci.

Two Men Killed In Mine Explosion

OTTUMWA, Iowa, March 19.—Two men were killed by an explosion in mine No. 12 at Buxton, near here, late yesterday. Nineteen mines also were killed. The accident occurred at the shot-firing period and was followed by a cave-in. The men killed were John Williams, a stampan, and John Taylor, a pumpman, both married.

ESTATE, GROOMMiss Ethel Atchison Becomes
Bride of Late Millionaire's Son

ALAMEDA, March 19.—In a rare case of rich white satin, with tulle and ruffles, Miss Ethel Atchison, daughter of the late John D. Atchison, was married to Mr. J. H. Atchison, son of the late John D. Atchison, at 8 o'clock, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. H. Atchison, 1414 Central avenue, where the ceremony was performed by Rev. C. L. Mears.

The ceremony was simple, but impressive, and was performed by Rev. C. L. Mears. Rev. Mr. Mears also performed the rites of baptism for four little nephews of the bride during the evening.

The wedding festivities were continued until a late hour, following the departure of the newly wedded couple for the south, where they will spend several weeks, returning about the country.

The bride, Miss Ethel Atchison, is a daughter of the late John D. Atchison, who was one of the wealthiest men in the state. She is a member of the University of California.

The groom, Mr. J. H. Atchison, is a son of the late John D. Atchison. He is a member of the University of California.

Tells How Wild
Flowers Travel
From Far Clime

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

March 19.—How does it happen that the same wild flowers bloom in California as in the Mediterranean basin, Australia and Chile? This strange story of the far migrations of plants, animals and trees was discussed by Willis L. Jepson, associate professor of dendrology in the University of California, in a lecture last evening on "The Origin, Relationships and Persistence of the California Flora," one of the lectures being given every Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, on "The Achievements and Aims of Present Day Science."

Professor Jepson said that the extraordinarily varied and interesting flora of California is made up of no less than 4750 species of flowering plants. Of these 1350 are native to California, and native there only. Great Britain, half the size of California, does not possess a single native plant native only to Great Britain.

The dominant relationship of the California flora, Professor Jepson stated, is with the Mediterranean. While the California flora is largely boreal (or northern) in origin, it has other important elements which are austral (or southern) in origin, and which are highly distinctive in composition and in distribution.

Of the 1350 species of flowering plants native only to California, many are types which are on the way to extinction. Their extreme localization is explainable by the fitting and lowering of land surfaces which past geological ages have brought about in California, and by the climatic changes which have been going on likewise, this constituting the geological history of the state.

HAMMER THROWER
HITS U. DIRECTOR

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

March 19.—Scott, director of outdoor physical culture work, was severely injured yesterday afternoon when struck with a hammer thrown by one of the university athletes on the old baseball field. Scott was taken to the student infirmary with several bones in his foot broken and a deep gash over his mouth. Scott was crossing the field where the air by one of them straight in his direction. The weight hit his foot, smashing several small bones in his foot, and the wire handle swished through the air and struck him on the lip, inflicting a deep wound. He was attended at the infirmary by Dr. George F. Redfield and will be confined there, according to the physician, for two weeks or more.

PLACE GRANITE ON TOWER
CAMPANILE WORK RUSHED

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA.

March 19.—Following the laying of the cornerstone yesterday of the new Campanile by students of the university, the two stone workers on the giant shaft started with vim and vigor this morning the work of covering the steel frame with granite. The work from now on will be rushed to completion. Up to a belvedere or lookout stage, 224 feet from the ground, granite will face the shaft, and from that height the pinnacle, which reaches an altitude of 306 feet, will be living and white marble.

Why Buy a Player Piano When You Can Get the PIANOLA

Today there are scores of Player Piano makes—the general public and many music houses refer to all of them as "PIANOLAS"—they are not PIANOLAS—there is only one PIANOLA, made exclusively by the Aeolian Company and obtainable only in these six pianos—Steinway, Weber, Steck, Wheelock, Shyngessant and Stroud.

The PIANOLA is the original—the STANDARD—from which all others are patterned.

The PIANOLA is the piano and the art to play it combined.

The PIANOLA is the only Piano with the METROSTYLE—the device for controlling tempo and imparting the correct interpretation. It consists of a red line marked on the roll and a movable pointer on the Pianola. The marking was made by a master musician as the composition should be played. Simply follow the red line with the microstyle pointer and, measure by measure, the selection is played with the correct tempo and the proper interpretation.

The PIANOLA has other superior devices—the THEMODYST, which automatically brings out the melody or theme clear above the accompanying harmonies—Also the GRADUATED ACCOMPANIMENT, the AUTOMATIC SUSTAINING PEDAL, and a score of exclusive patents and improvements which serve in establishing the PIANOLA as the perfect player instrument.

The prices of the PIANOLA are no greater than often asked for Player Pianos. Therefore, do not buy a Player Piano, but buy the original—the Standard—the Pianola.

Prices from $575 up. Your present Piano taken in exchange. Moderate payment terms if desired.

DEMOCRATS ADOPT PRIMARY PLANK

State Convention at Indianapolis Favors State-wide Primary Law.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 18.—After an all-night session of the resolutions committee of the Democratic state convention which met here today was adopted and includes a plank, proposed by United States Senator R. F. Shively, placing the party on record as favoring a state wide primary law. The vote of the plank was 7 to 6.

After the platform had been completed members of the committee expressed resentment over the actions of Senators gress who appeared before the committee and urged the adoption of the primary plank.

Mayor Joseph E. Bell of Indianapolis, chairman of the committee declared only one out of the thirteen members of the committee favored the primary feature and that it has been adopted only after the senators and congressmen had made a plea that if such a plank were not included, it would be a reflection on President Wilson.

SUPPORTS MEXICAN POLICY.

Governor S. M. Baelton in his address to the convention declared his emphatic support of President Wilson's Mexican policy. "President Wilson has handled with great wisdom and dignity the critical situation," he said. "On a last and most desperate resort would be consent to the clashing of arms between two countries and Mexico. Christian people will endorse his course and pray that it may result in a victory for law and justice."

"A grateful people also should not fail to pay tribute to those who have stood by the president. Much of the popularity of the present national administration is due to the stand it has taken for the things that have been advocated for years under the leadership of that masterful man, William Jennings Bryan."

HIGH TRIBUTE PAID.

High tribute was paid to the national administration. President Wilson vice-President Marshall and Secretary Bryan in the platform adopted at the convention. "The Democracy of Indiana," reads the platform, "in delegate convention assembled, re-affirms its responsibility cast on the Democratic party of the nation by the overwhelming voice of the people at the last national election, points with supreme pride and satisfaction to the record of its achievements which are without a parallel in history of prompt and complete fulfillment of the party's pledges to the people."

PLEDGES FAITHFULLY REDEEMED.

"We heartily commend the untiring zeal and ceaseless labors of President Wilson, Vice-President Marshall and the Democratic members of Congress in both the Senate and the House for the prompt and faithful manner in which they have redeemed the solemn pledges made by the party to the people in the Baltimore platform of 1912."

The platform contains a plank putting the party on record as favoring an arbitration act similar to the Erdman law and a demand for a rigid enforcement of the labor laws. The present financial embarrassment of the state is charged to the previous "extended rule of Republican extravagance and misadministration."

Senator B. A. Bowers, after being nominated, thanked the delegates for the honor and discussed the work of the national administration, paying a tribute to President Wilson with statements that the Democratic rule had brought about a real revision of the tariff downward, had divorced the country's currency system and speculators, and had solved the trust question, and that President Wilson had met perplexing international problems with a firmness and tact that has been unequalled in the history of the country.

BRYAN GREETED BANQUETERS.

LINCOLN, Neb., March 13.—Members of the Democratic party of National and State prominence are to meet here tonight at a banquet in honor of the fifty-fourth birthday of Secretary of State Bryan. For the first time in several years the secretary will not be in attendance, but a message of greeting was received from him today which will be read tonight.

INDIANAPOLIS, March 18.—Candidates for every state office excepting that of Governor and a candidate for United States Senator will be named by the convention today. Party leaders said that Senator Shively would not be opposed for the senatorial nomination.

HELEN KELLER TO DELIVER LECTURE

Will Appear at Ye Liberty Playhouse Tomorrow at 4 O'clock

Helen Keller, one of the most illustrious women of the age, with her life-long teacher, companion and friend, Mrs. John Macy, who should be mentioned in the same breath with her marvelous pupil, will appear at Ye Liberty Playhouse tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, where Miss Keller will deliver her famous lecture.

Having mastered the difficult role of speaking three languages and writing five, this girl, during the past year has taken another step forward in her remarkable career. Under the instruction of Charles White, a vocal master at the New England Conservatory of Music, she has greatly improved her speaking voice, and now she can be distinctly heard in all parts of a theater on an audience. During the summer of 1912 she spoke before a convention of teachers of the deaf at Providence, R. I. This was the first time she had stood alone on any public platform. A few months later she addressed an audience of physicians at the Otological congress held in Boston. The success of these two experiments caused her to decide upon her present tour.

Miss Keller counts among her friends many of the noted men of this country, and numbered the late Mark Twain with her acquaintances. It was the latter who said Miss Keller and her companion were the most interesting people of the twentieth century. Warfield holds as one of his pleasantest interviews that with Miss Keller, and his joy was turned to wonder, then to admiration, as she conversed with him, indulging in droll bits of wit and humor.

Proceeding the lecture tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. Macy will tell the story of how a girl surmounted and overcame almost seeming impossibilities, which will fer-ever be an inspiration to others so affected, and for that matter, to every boy and girl in the world, who are starting out to win an education. This step by step story is said to be one of the most graphic ever told, and is in itself an education to any audience.

Mary Macy will preside at the meeting and introduce the noted speaker. Music will be furnished by the high school orchestra.

SLIPS UNDER CAR AND HAS LEG AMPUTATED

While attempting to board a two-car special Hayward express near the Embarcadero car barns this morning, Jesse Enos, 22 years of age, living at 1723 Twenty-fourth avenue, slipped under the wheels with the result that his left leg was nearly severed from his body. The victim was taken to the hospital, where Dr. P. H. Webber amputated the limb.

"The Spring Styles Really Are Wonderful"

THEY ARE ON DISPLAY AT CHERRY'S

"CHERRY'S have the right clothes at the right price, and once you become a customer you will remain one, because CHERRY'S clothes are so satisfactory. Take this suit I have on, for example, girls. Did you ever see anything that beat it in style? The line is perfect. It has held its shape wonderfully, and as for texture, when I wear it I feel like a queen."

Let me tell you, you can easily see that there is nothing but first-class goods in it. Furthermore, I have just finished paying for it. This delightful store allows one to make a deposit on a suit, dress, petticoat or whatever is needed, and then you can regulate your payments as best suits you. Think of how much easier this plan is than paying on a cash basis."

They have stores in three cities: Oakland stores, 528 Thirteenth street, for men, and 515 Thirteenth street, for ladies and men, also 2400 Mission street for ladies and men; Los Angeles, 625 S. Broadway for ladies and men.

LOOKS LIKE CHERUB: DECEIVING. MARTINETTE, Wis., March 12.—Although he is only 10 years old and looks like a cherub, Clyde Barrett, Marinette, Wis., smokes and has been arrested five times.

Juvenile Judge A. E. Davis, who had paroled the boy four times, committed him to the State Industrial School for Boys, Waukesha, when the lad's mother admitted that paroling had no effect on him.

Among other thefts the boy made away with $50 worth of candy, soft drinks and groceries from a store at Cedar River, Wis.
